

Come, Walk With Me (Capo V)

Text: Emily Jane Brontë

Musik: Autumn Valley

Am
Come, walk with me,
E
There's only thee
Emaj
To bless my spirit now -
C E
We used to love on winter nights
To wander through the snow;
Can we not woo back old delights?
The clouds rush dark and wild
They fleck with shade our mountain heights
Am
The same as long ago 2x
Dm Am E G
And on the horizon rest at last
Dm Am
In looming masses piled;
E
While moonbeams flash and fly so fast
G
We scarce can say they smiled -

Am
Come walk with me, come walk with me;
E
We were not once so few
Dm
But Death has stolen our company
(E) G
As sunshine steals the dew -
Am
He took them one by one and we
Are left the only two;
Dm
So closer would my feelings twine
E
Because they have no stay but thine

'Nay call me not - it may not be
Is human love so true?
Can Friendship's flower droop on for years
And then revive anew?
No, though the soil be wet with tears,
How fair soe'er it grew
The vital sap once perished
It will never flow again
And surer than that dwelling dread, surer than that dwelling dread,
The narrow dungeon of the dead
Time parts the hearts of men -'
And surer than that dwelling dread,
Time parts the hearts of men -'
